In Memoriam

In memory of Colena Elizabeth Burge, who departed this life, April 3, 1975.
Our Mother's love was something that no one can explain,
It was made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain,
It was endless and unselfish and enduring come what may For nothing could destroy it or take that love away
It was patient and forgiving when all others were forsaking,
And it never failed or faltered even though the heart was breaking It believed beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glowed with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems.
It was far beyond defining,
it defied all explanation,
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation Among splendid miracles man cannot understand And another wonderous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.

"His countenance was like lightening, and his raiment as white as snow." Matt. 28:3
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wheeler and Joan, of Richmond, were dinner guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jones, Sunday and Richard came in the afternoon.
Mr. Wallace Bondurant visited Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Wheeler Friday. Mrs. Jack Stratton and Mrs. A. W. Ellett visited them, also.

LAWSON FORD MECHANIC HONORED
Johnny Paulette, mechanic at Lawson Ford, Inc., was honored recently when he was awarded a plaque at "The Best of The Best - 1975" banquet given by Ford Motor Company in Williamsburg.
Paulette won by participating in the Ford All-Star Program that is based on report card records sent to Ford Motor Company in Detroit, Michigan by customers grading quality work done by mechanic. Based on the "No Unhappy Owners" slogan, cash prizes are awarded mechanics each month and Paulette has been awarded several of these prizes during the past several years.
Modesty prevented him from saying so, but he had scored the highest points in the Zone for 1975. He is continually working to improve service to customers, not required work but because of his interest in doing the best job possible. He has been certified in all phrases of mechanics work and Lawson Ford appreciates his enthusiasm and pride in his work.
Also attending the Ford Motor Company banquet in Williamsburg was Mrs. Paulette and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawson, President and owner of Lawson Ford, Inc.

In Tribute

Mrs. Dottie Crowder Irby

In tribute to Mrs. Dottie Crowder Irby, The United Methodist Women of Memorial United Methodist Church, Appomattox, Virginia, express our sorrow at her death, November 28, 1975.
Forty-five years she was dedicated to her church, serving as teacher and Superintendent of the Junior Division, choir member, Hermitage Guild Fund Chairman, Administrative Board member and member of the Commission On Education.
She was involved in civic services using her skill as a Registered Nurse by participating in the Bloodmobile, medical clinics and the local Health Department. These were endeavors after her untiring devotion and loving attention to her invalid husband who departed this life shortly before her passing.
Her faith and Christian character have become a lasting inspiration to those whom she taught and with whom she worked. She is missed by all who knew her.
Be it resolved that a copy of this tribute be incorporated in the minutes of the Administrative Board, United Methodist Women, a copy to the family, a copy published in the Times-Virginian and a copy to the Virginia Advocate.
